Drugs and Medicines

THE UNIVERSITY MEDICINES.

These preparations are the result of an immens practice, a life-long study and experience. They have been popularized to piace within easy reach of all, Scientific and Reliable Remedies for the most prevalent diseases. Their precent dissemination gives them the wide field of the generally ignorant, injurious and worthless Patent Medicines, and presents to the geople well-tested and valuable remedies, of the emicary of which there are hourly proofs from all parts of the country and even Europe. So successful are these noted restoratives, they have been adopted by many members of the profession in their practice. They are safe—and never reduce a patient—never render any one more liable to take cold—never oblige a person to leave business—never require their continuous use as a condition of cure. They often restore health in cases pronounced incurable. They are desiderata never before attained. They can be relied on to effect all that is possible for any medicines to accomplish in the cure of disease.
